

Mason McWatters Memorial Scholarship

Administered through the Center Multicultural and Diversity Education

The Mason McWatters Memorial Scholarship is a one-year, non-renewal $2000.00 scholarship for students of a federally- recognized tribes indigenous to the US, including, but not limited membership in the Quapaw Tribe.

Criteria to receive this scholarship

Recipients of this scholarship must be enrolled at the University of Arkansas and must have acquired and maintain a cumulative GPA of a 2.5 or higher throughout the year of funding.

Application materials

All prospective candidates must complete and submit the following information:

1. A completed application (see below)
2. A typed essay (no more than 500 words) articulating future educational and career goals and aspirations.
3. One letter of support from a community leader or faculty member
4. If not a current U of A student, please send copy of your high school or college transcript
5. A copy of a tribal membership card

All material should be submitted through email to the Center for Multicultural and Diversity Education at uamc@uark.edu with a subject line (McWatters Scholarship).

For more information regarding the scholarship application process please contact Brande Flack at bmflack@uark.edu or 479-575-5014.

Mason McWatters Memorial Scholarship Application

Full Name _____

Mailing Address _____

Email _____ Phone _____

Tribe Affiliation _____

Status (circle one)

Incoming freshman /Undergraduate student /Graduate student /Law student

(If current U of A student)

Current GPA _____ Major _____

By submitting this completed application, I verify that all information is accurate and my own work. I give the Center for Multicultural and Diversity Education permission to verify the above information and to release this information to the scholarship committee for the purpose of scholarship selection.

Signature of Applicant

_____ Date _____

Please submit your application and all additional materials in one email to uamc@uark.edu by Wednesday, May 17th at midnight to be considered for this scholarship.